

National Weather Service

Storm Data and Unusual Weather Phenomena

November 1999

Location	Date	Time Local/ Standard	Path Length (Miles)	Path Width (Yards)	Number of Persons Killed	Number of Persons Injured	Estimated Damage Property	Estimated Damage Crops	Character of Storm
----------	------	----------------------------	---------------------------	--------------------------	--------------------------------	---------------------------------	---------------------------------	------------------------------	--------------------

MINNESOTA, Northeast

MNZ037

Southern St. Louis / Carlton

01 1010CST

0

0

Strong Wind

Strong winds overturned half of a double-wide manufactured home as it was being towed across the Blatnik Bridge between Duluth, Minnesota and Superior, Wisconsin. Other reports were received of downed trees and power lines in southern St. Louis county during the day. Automated wind-measuring equipment at Duluth International Airport recorded a peak wind gust of 48 MPH in the early afternoon. The average wind speed for the day was over 22 MPH.

MNZ021

Southern Cook

23 0400CST
2300CST

0

0

Heavy Snow

Heavy snow fell over the Minnesota north shore of Lake Superior. Hovland received 12 inches, Lutsen 8 inches, with 6 inches near Grand Marais.

WISCONSIN, Northwest

WIZ001

Douglas

01 1010CST

0

0

Strong Wind

Strong winds around the Head of the Lakes overturned half of a double-wide manufactured home being towed across the Blatnik Bridge between Superior, Wisconsin and Duluth, Minnesota. Reports of downed trees and power lines were also received from other parts of Douglas county. Peak wind gusts were estimated to exceed 40 MPH in the northern part of the county.

WIZ001>004

Douglas - Bayfield - Ashland - Iron

23 0800CST
2300CST

0

0

Heavy Snow

Heavy snow fell along the south shore of Lake Superior. Hurley received 11 inches, Butternut 9 inches, with 7 inches reported at both Cornucopia and Lake Nebagamon.